

NORTH CAROLINA HIGH ANGLE RESCUE SCHOOL

Spring – Units 1 & 3

March 26-28, 2021

Commissioner Mike Causey, State Fire Marshal

Held in Cooperation with:

Stone Mountain State Park ♦ NC Association of Rescue and EMS ♦ Wilkes Community College

The North Carolina High Angle Rescue School is a progressive school. The curriculum offers a wide range of rescue procedures consisting of “hands on” tasks and skills with students being evaluated during the evolutions. The skills that are taught in this school are not limited to the wilderness environment, but can easily be adapted to urban high-level rescue situations. A certificate of completion will be awarded upon successful completion of all four units.
